Welcome to Yellow Barn's 40th anniversary season. Please join us for a summer of concerts, celebrations and much more. Yellow Barn's mission has long been to create a supportive and nurturing environment for the lifelong discovery of chamber music, both for the musicians who take part in our festival and our audience members. We are extremely grateful for the dedication and generosity of all Yellow Barn's supporters whose many contributions have been an invaluable part of making Yellow Barn's mission a reality.

Yellow Barn Grand Drawing

Yellow Barn Music School & Festival and Douglas C. Cox, luthier, present an opportunity to own a Douglas Cox copy of the “Goldberg” violin through a grand drawing.

The “Goldberg” Violin
Giuseppe Guarneri “del Gesù”
 A copy by Douglas C. Cox, luthier
 West Brattleboro, Vermont

In the great tradition of masterful copies modeled on historic instruments, Douglas Cox has created a replica of the “Goldberg” violin (circa 1730–32), which he has given to Yellow Barn. The “Goldberg” was recently donated to the Library of Congress by the estate of Miyoko Yamane, wife of the late teacher and violinist, Szymon Goldberg. Mr. Cox selected the “Goldberg” model for its unique proportions, which produce nearly perfect tone quality. This Douglas Cox replica is valued at $20,000.

Tickets for the grand drawing are $500 each and are available throughout the festival season. The drawing will be held on August 8th and Mr. Cox will draw the winning ticket. Drawing limited to 100 tickets; a minimum of 40 tickets must be sold for this prize drawing to be held.

For more information on Douglas C. Cox, violin maker, please go to: www.coxviolins.com

For more information on the drawing and a detailed description of the violin, please contact:

YELLOW BARN MUSIC SCHOOL & FESTIVAL

40th Anniversary Season

June 21–August 8, 2009

Welcome to Yellow Barn

We are delighted to welcome you to Yellow Barn's 40th anniversary festival season. We look forward to marking this wonderful occasion with a rich and varied selection of concerts, anniversary celebrations and galas, and a look inside the artistic process with Yellow Barn artists, trustees and staff. We're delighted to return to our campus at The Greenwood School as we celebrate this anniversary with our hometown of Putney, Vermont.

The festival season features 24 concerts, five master classes, eight community outreach events, pre-concert suppers and discussions, post-concert receptions; and includes three concerts during our Young Artists Program and a special 40th anniversary Mountaintop Musicale.

YELLOW BARN CONCERTS

July 10–August 8, 2009

Concerts bring to the stage Yellow Barn's renowned faculty and outstanding participants, together performing repertoire from the Baroque era to music of our time. Putney concerts take place at the Big Barn concert hall on Main Street, by kind permission of Michael McKenzie. Our two Northampton concerts take place at Sweeney Concert Hall in Sage Hall, on the Smith College campus. Both venues offer superb acoustics, comfortable seating, air-conditioning, and full handicapped access.

MASTER CLASSES

Public master classes provide a fascinating behind-the-scenes look at what goes into the preparation of performances at the highest level and how master artists convey musical knowledge to the next generation of performers.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Yellow Barn is pleased to welcome back alumni ensemble So Percussion to open our 40th anniversary season. Additional events include Yellow Barn's 40th anniversary celebration at Mountaintop Musicale in Walpole, New Hampshire on June 27 and a special gala performance on July 18 featuring a chamber version of Mahler's Symphony No. 4 and Brahms' monumental Piano Quartet in A major. A Founders' Concert in honor of David and Janet Wells

Big Barn Concert Hall, Putney, Vermont

takes place on July 31 and our Scholarship Benefit Concert honoring John Burt, on August 7.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EVENTS

This annual series offers special events for children, seniors, and others who are unable to attend regularly scheduled Yellow Barn concerts. Community concerts are free and open to the general public. See page 15 for schedule details.

PRE-CONCERT EVENTS

Festival Suppers include delicious food and an opportunity to mingle with members of the Yellow Barn community. Each supper includes an informal discussion with a specially invited member of the Yellow Barn faculty. The suppers take place on Fridays, July 17, 24, 31, and August 7. Menus will be available at www.yellowbarn.org or by calling the Yellow Barn office a week in advance. Reservations are required. For further information about pre-concert suppers, please contact the Yellow Barn office.

Pre-concert Discussions take place on Saturdays, July 11, 18, 25, and August 1, and 8 at the Putney Public Library, 55 Main Street, Putney, VT. These events offer an insight into selected works and a chance for audience members to learn more about the evening's program. Admission is free.
